Blessings

Warm Winter Greetings from Guam,

As we begin 2008, we would like to take some time to reflect on the LY ve of God. Not only has He provided a means of relationship with Him, but He has also lavished us with every spiritual blessing in Christ! Rejoice with us as you read some letters from listeners in Vietnam who are aware of God's LY ve in the midst of trouble!

Once again I thank the TWR for its concern regarding my life. . . When I read the letters I could not hold my tears for God's LY ve was pouring for my comfort in my . . . loneliness and sorrow. The area where I live consists of unbelievers who know nothing about God. Amongst those unbelievers are my husband and his side of the family. I ask TWR to help me in gaining more knowledge about God. I persistently ask God to grant me His grace so that I could live a worthy life (of) His LY ve dedicated for me. I promise to take people to God for their conviction of Him and their surrender to Him. ~Listener in Vietnam

I am very glad that my letters have arrived to you and I also have received your reply. I thank God (for) such a broadcasting program for everyone including myself to receive many lessons beneficial for our spiritual life... understanding and experiencing the LY ve of God will bring good results for God's believers in life adversity. ~Listener in Vietnam

My family (was) in (a) difficult situation in 2005, but by this circumstance, my husband (was) called and touched by Holy Spirit. He was led to meet Rev. "P" and believe in God at that time. By his testimonies, our family also believe(d) in God . . . It is a blessing for my family to receive a radio. I thank Him from the bottom of my heart for His mercy on my family by bring us His Words in different ways . . . that help us to understand His LY ve. . . so that we can witness for our neighbors and relatives to be saved like us and please Him as well. ~"P" – Vietnam

Doug's family visited us in early December and we were able to enjoy some holiday activities together! What a great way to kick off our Christmas season!

We are so grateful for every card, letter and gift received. We feel so blessed to have such special family and friends.
